

Hu Zhengyue

Vice President of China Public Diplomacy Association

Hu Zhengyue served as a staff member at the Department of Asian Affairs under Ministry of Foreign Affairs (1976-1978). While serving in the Socialist Republic of Vietnam, he worked as attaché (1978-1982) and First Secretary of Chinese Embassy (1991-1993). He also worked as attaché, Third Secretary, Deputy Director General, and First Secretary at the Department of Asian Affairs under Ministry of Foreign Affairs (1982-1991). He then served at Chinese Embassy in the Republic of Singapore as First Secretary (1993-1995) and Minister Counselor (1995-1997). After serving in the Socialist Republic of Vietnam and the Republic of Singapore, he worked as Deputy Director General at the Department of Asian Affairs under Ministry of Foreign Affairs (1997-2000). After a year engaging in Advanced Studies in Georgetown University in the United States (2000-2001), Hu served as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of China to Malaysia (2001-2003). He continued serving at Ministry of Foreign Affairs where he worked as Director General at the Department for Diplomatic Missions Abroad (2003-2004), Executive Deputy Secretary at the Department for Party-related Affairs (2004-2006), Director General at the Department of Asian Affairs (2006-2008), Assistant Minister of Foreign Affairs (2008-2011), and Commissioner of the Office of the Commissioner in Macao Special Administrative Region (2011-2015). He is currently Vice President of China Public Diplomacy Association (2015-).

Prof. Wu Xiaoqiu

Vice President of Renmin University of China

Dr. Wu Xiaoqiu, as a professor of finance and supervisor of Ph.D. candidates, also serves as Vice President of Renmin University of China, Executive Vice-President of the Graduate School, Vice Chairman of the University Academic Council, Executive director of Chongyang Institute for Financial Studies at Renmin University of China (RDCY), Director of Finance and Securities Institute under the School of Finance, and Yangtz Scholar (2007). As an expert in finance and securities, Dr. Wu has published over 100 articles in key academic journals such as Social Sciences in China, Economic Research Journal, Journal of Financial Research, Finance & Trade Economics, Management World, and Journal of Renmin University of China. He also authored a number of books, including Analysis on Chinese Capital Market (2006), The Enlightenment of Financial Crisis (2009), The Transformation and Rise of China: Exploring a Road to a Financial Power (2011), China's Capital Market: Institutional Change and Policy Adjustment (2013), Chinese Securities Companies; An Analysis of Economic Growth, Financial Structure Transformation, and Future Development (2014), Internet Finance: Logic and Structure (2015), Concerns and Arguments: the Symposium of the Theme Studies in 20 Years of China Capital Market.

Zhao Xiyuan

Secretary-General, China Public Diplomacy Association

Zhao Xiyuan worked as a journalist and Section Chief of China National Radio (1995-2011). He served as Media Counselor at Chinese Embassy in South Africa for two years (2011-2013), Deputy Chief of Mission and Political Counselor at Chinese Embassy in Qatar (2013-2016), and Counselor at the Department of Information under Chinese Foreign Ministry (2016.03-2016.09). He is currently Secretary-General of China Public Diplomacy Association.

Prof. Zhao Xijun

Deputy Dean of School of Finance, Renmin University of China

Prof. Zhao Xijun is Deputy Dean of School of Finance at Renmin University of China. He is also Deputy Director of Finance and Securities Institute at Renmin University of China, Executive Director and Member of Academic Committee of China International Finance Research Institute, and Vice President of Beijing International Finance Research Institute. Prof. Zhao got his Ph.D. degree from School of Finance, Renmin University of China. His research interest covers international finance, capital market, financial regulation, monetary policy and Chinese economy. Since 1987, Prof. Zhao has published 4 books and more than 70 papers and articles in both domestic and international academic journals, and he has also written, edited and translated more than 30 textbooks. He has written reports to PBOC, CSRC, SAFE, Ministry of Commerce and other government agencies and financial institutions. He has led and participated more than 10 academic research projects, some of which got awards from China Finance Institute, People's Bank of China, and Ministry of Commerce. Prof. Zhao is currently a member of various academic institutions in finance. He frequently attends academic forums, conferences, and seminars in China, Europe, the US, Japan, South Korea and Russia.

Prof. Wang Wen

Executive Dean, Chongyang Institute for Financial Studies at Renmin University of China (RDCY)

Prof. Wang Wen is currently Executive Dean of RDCY. He also serves as Secretary-General of Green Finance Association of China, Standing Director of World Socialism Research at Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, Standing Director of “One Belt One Road” Think Tanks’ Association of China, as well as a columnist at Sina.com and Guancha.cc. Wang worked as chief Op-eds Editor and Editorial Writer in Global Times. He was the winner of the China News Awards in 2011. Wang participated in the founding of the RDCY in early 2013, a new-style think tank. He was named as “China’s Top Ten Think Tank Figures” by China.org.cn in 2014 and was granted “Outstanding Award” by Chinese State Council in 2015. Wang has translated, co-edited, and independently written more than 20 books including Think as a Tank, Anxiety of the US, Fantasy of Major Countries: Record and Contemplation Traveling the World, Theories of World Governance: A Study in the History of Ideas, International Relations in Political Thoughts, A Truth Speaking China, Finance is A Cup of Afternoon Tea, and G20 and Global Governance.

Hu Bin

Deputy Division Chief, Department of Latin American and Caribbean Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People’s Republic of China

Hu Bin served as Vice-Consul in Consulate General of China in Rio de Janeiro (2005-2007) and Third Secretary in Embassy of China in Brazil (2007-2012). He is currently Deputy Division Chief serving on Department of Latin American and Caribbean Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China (2013-).

Cui Yue

Executive Editor-in-Chief of Information Centre, Chongyang Institute for Financial Studies, Renmin University of China (RDCY)

Cui Yue is currently an Executive Editor-in-Chief of Information Centre of RDCY. Before joining RDCY, she was a journalist, editor and Chief-Editor of International Business Daily, Ministry of Commerce of China (2007-2015) successively. In 2012, she was sponsored to Korea Development Institute for a master degree study by Ministry of Commerce of China, and graduated as a Master of Public Policy in 2013.

Cheng Cheng

Associate Research fellow of Industry Research Department of Chongyang Institute for Financial Studies, Renmin University of China (RDCY)

Dr. Cheng is currently an Associate Research Fellow of RDCY. Before joining RDCY, Dr. Cheng firstly worked as a visiting fellow (2012-2013) and then a non-resident Researcher (2014-2016) in China Africa Research Initiative at the Johns Hopkins University in the United States. His research field of interest includes International Development, Development Economics, international operation of Chinese enterprises, and China-Africa relation. He has published dozens of articles in domestic and international journals, news web and magazines. He also co-authored two books about Development Economics and Finances.